TODAY

In the Church year today is Transfiguration Sunday. It is the time when the church recalls Jesus' transfiguration – celebrating the glorious revelation of God in Jesus Christ and the call to radical discipleship.

Following the Christian Ed hour, new participants are invited to the first of 3 orientation sessions. This week's focus is on Anabaptist / Mennonite faith & history. These will include a light meal, presentation, and discussion.

Sign up to be paired with a Listening Team by today! Contact Rebecca, Doris or Wally.

NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday marks the beginning of Lent. This year our theme is "Anticipating Resurrection." As Christians we move through the Lenten season with the spirit of reflection and repentance while looking forward to the day of resurrection.

Mentor-mentee activity: We will have lunch together after Sunday school and then go bowling! Any questions – ask Crystal, Doris or Mary Beth.

The second orientation session for new participants will be held following Christian Ed hour.

How can it be that within Mennonite Church USA some conferences include congregations that are open and welcoming of GLBT members, while others discipline or expel those same congregations? The answer comes from understanding MC USA polity. Join us for ELF night February 27. We'll be seeing and discussing a DVD on Mennonite Church USA prepared by Janeen Bertsche Johnson, AMBS Chaplin and co-chair of Central District Conference Missional Church committee. - PET
