Call to Worship

Leader: Come, let us worship in faith the God who is here and desires our worship.
Let us invite the Holy Spirit to work in our hearts, so that our worship will be filled with the joy that comes from remembering God's splendor.

All: Oh, that you would reveal your joy to us, O Lord!

Leader: Let our spirits rejoice in God our Savior. Let us celebrate the year of the Lord's favor; a time of comfort for those who mourn.

People: There will be beauty instead of ashes, cloaks of praise instead of spirits of despair.

Leader: Cities of renewal instead of devastation.

People: The Mighty One has done great things for us; Holy is God's name.

Leader: God's mercy extends to those who honor him from generation to generation.

All: *The Lord will wrap us in robes of righteousness.
Come, O God, and clothe us in garments of salvation.*

FOR PRAYER

This week, remember in prayer all our college students – Logan, Sophie, Lacey, and Hannah – as they prepare for and take final exams in the days ahead. May they have calmness, confidence and joy even as they face end-of-semester stresses.

Pray that God would sustain and comfort those who are living with cancer, including: Sarah W., Mickey Lewellyn, Donald Parsons, and Pam Guess.

Pray for the artisans in developing countries who create the products that are sold in Ten Thousand Villages stores across North America (www.tenthousandvillages.com). Give thanks and pray for the many volunteers who run the stores. Praise God for the opportunities this fair-trade business venture provides for artisans to earn a living.

OUR COVENANT

In covenanting together, we affirm that Jesus Christ is Lord. We gratefully acknowledge him as our Lord and accept his teaching as the way to live. We recognize the importance of:

- Regular Bible study, worship with others, and prayer as a vital part of our Christian life.
- Taking each other seriously, contributing our gifts and caring for one another in love to strengthen the Christian body.
- Living and sharing the Good News as Christ has taught us and as the Holy Spirit enables.

TODAY

Can a follower of Jesus experience any joy knowing of Christian persecutions, innocents being killed, girls and women being sexually assaulted, wars, refugees, racial minorities feeling threatened and oppressed, ravaging of the environment? Is there any reason for hope and joy that the will of God will be done on earth as in heaven?

Final practice for the children’s Christmas program following Sunday school. All children in the preschool, primary and middler classes are asked to be present.

NEXT SUNDAY

Longest Night Service: at 7 p.m. During this busy Advent season you are invited to participate in our Longest Night service which gives voice to our own losses and to the grief and loss experienced by others. Please reach out to others in our community who you know are dealing with loss and invite them. This service will include scripture readings, prayer, silence, music and the lighting of candles. It is a time to experience the call of Jesus: "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest."

Confession

Leader: Today in this safe but dark and holy place we become aware of your presence, oh God. Our thoughts turn to our congregation and the wider Anabaptist Mennonite church family.

People: Our desire is to be a faithful church, but sometimes we've kept the riches of our faith and the joy of your salvation to ourselves.

Leader: Sometimes we have refused to admit our weaknesses.
Sometimes we have excluded the inquirer who has come to our door seeking faith.
Sometimes we have been too quiet about the difference you make in our lives.
Sometimes we've helped those far away but ignored those who are next door.
Sometimes we have forgotten the joy of worshipping you.
Hear our honest confessions, O God, and remember us in mercy.

People: Restore to us the joy of being your transformed people.

All: Restore our joy, O God Almighty; let your face shine, that we may be saved. (Time of Silence)

Song: Come and fill our hearts with your joy.
You alone, O Lord, are holy.
Come and fill our hearts with your joy.
Alleluia.

Assurance

Leader: The Lord has done great things in and through his church, and has bestowed rich blessings on us, his Anabaptist people.

People: Thank you God, that when we place our lives into your hands, you willingly transform our timid hearts with your infectious joy.

Scripture reading: Isaiah 61:10-11

All: I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my whole being shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness,

Men: as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland,

Women: and as a bride adorns herself with jewels.

All: For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.
