Ask for God's blessing on the high school youth, Andrew and Evie as they travel today to Atlanta to participate in the DOOR program this week through Friday. Pray for a good time of learning and spiritual growth through their service, interactions, and study. (See announcement.)

Continue to remember the Brown Kinloch family in prayer as they grieve the death of Dave's father this past week. Pray also for others who have experienced loss recently.

Pray for those you know who have health concerns, including: Liliann Woodsmall, Jahsmine Borders, Nedra Sullivan, Ted's brother Bill, and Helen Gooch. Helen has been moved to Westview nursing home in Bedford.

Thank God for the work of Peter and Delicia Wigginton as they encourage and assist the ministries of congregations in Ecuador. Pray specifically for their interactions with indigenous churches as they work at leadership development and Bible training.

Living Ink: The Plot Thickens

Palm Sunday

Focus: The plot in the 'Passion Week' story of Jesus is thick and complex. We, like the characters in that story, sometimes shout 'hosanna' and 'crucify' and 'I don't know him'; we watch from afar in sorrow and fear.

TODAY

This year during Lent we are invited to see ourselves as living characters in the Living God's ongoing story. God's story grounds us in God's promises and actions of calling and redemption. Today we will use parts of Luke 19:28 - 23:56 to tell the story of Jesus and his friends in the days leading up to, and including, his crucifixion. The plot thickens as the crowds first hail Jesus as savior, then call for his death; as his friends eat with him, and also run away. You are invited to listen and enter into the story as we experience it through art, drama, song, and reflections.

Today Andrew and Evie will accompany seven of our high school youth to Atlanta, Georgia, where they will participate in service projects and learning activities. They will engage in the question of "who is our neighbor?" by using the Bible and writings of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and engaging the theme through service work and community interactions. Your prayers for this trip are appreciated.

Reminder; please submit your gift discernment forms by today.

NEXT SUNDAY

Join the Easter celebration as the story of God's rescue and redemption of the world reached its climax in God's raising Jesus the Messiah. God's story of calling, healing, and creating isn't over; God keeps writing and inviting us to become actors in the amazing story. In what ways can we keep "infiltrating the world with the love of God"?

Easter Sunday breakfast served from 8:30-9:30 am., then something special for the young children. Worship service begins at 10:00. There will be no Sunday school classes.
