

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Continue to pray for the youth of the congregation and community during this summer season away from the school routine. Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

Pray for those with health-related needs including Jamey's dad and mom, Dave Woodsmall's friend Dave who has cancer, and others. Give thanks for the healing Julie has experienced thus far following her surgery a couple weeks ago.

Praise God for the courage of the Christians in Sidi, Burkina Faso, who overcame violence and hate with acts of love. Pray for protection for peace-loving people all around the world who are working to build bridges, spread hope, and bring reconciliation.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

In addition, everyone is to bring a picture or some symbol that might symbolize the immigration experience. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

Prayer of Confession: Working in our own Power

Leader: Holy spirit, source of our life,
hear your children's confession
and grant us mercy.
For fearing change
when you call us to new patterns of living,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For failing to see your empowering, transforming vision
for ourselves and for all your creation around us,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)
All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.
Song: Your are all we have – SJ 29

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Continue to pray for the youth of the congregation and community during this summer season away from the school routine. Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Monday 18, 6:30 pm - small group committee

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

In addition, everyone is to bring a picture or some symbol that might symbolize the immigration experience. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

Prayer of Confession: Working in our own Power

Leader: Holy spirit, source of our life,
hear your children's confession
and grant us mercy.
For fearing change
when you call us to new patterns of living,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For failing to see your empowering, transforming vision
for ourselves and for all your creation around us,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)
All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.
Song: Your are all we have – SJ 29

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you

and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Continue to pray for the youth of the congregation and community during this summer season away from the school routine. Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

Wednesday, July 20: All youth will meet at 5 p.m. at the Sullivans to discuss the book, The Distance Between Us. In addition, everyone is to bring a picture or some symbol that might symbolize the immigration experience. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

Prayer of Confession: Working in our own Power

Leader: Holy spirit, source of our life,
hear your children's confession
and grant us mercy.
For fearing change
when you call us to new patterns of living,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For failing to see your empowering, transforming vision
for ourselves and for all your creation around us,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)
All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.
Song: Your are all we have – SJ 29

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Continue to pray for the youth of the congregation and community during this summer season away from the school routine. Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Monday 18, 6:30 pm - small group committee

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

Wednesday, July 20: All youth will meet at 5 p.m. at the Sullivans to discuss the book, The Distance Between Us. In addition, everyone is to bring a picture or some symbol that might symbolize the immigration experience. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

Prayer of Confession: Working in our own Power

Leader: Holy spirit, source of our life,
hear your children's confession

for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Continue to pray for the youth of the congregation and community during this summer season away from the school routine. Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

Praise God for the courage of the Christians in Sidi, Burkina Faso, who overcame violence and hate with acts of love. Pray for protection for peace-loving people all around the world who are working to build bridges, spread hope, and bring reconciliation.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Monday 18, 6:30 pm - small group committee

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

Wednesday, July 20: All youth will meet at 5 p.m. at the Sullivans to discuss the book, The Distance Between Us. In addition, everyone is to bring a picture or some symbol that might symbolize the immigration experience. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.
Song: Your are all we have – SJ 29

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Continue to pray for the youth of the congregation and community during this summer season away from the school routine. Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

Praise God for the courage of the Christians in Sidi, Burkina Faso, who overcame violence and hate with acts of love. Pray for protection for peace-loving people all around the world who are working to build bridges, spread hope, and bring reconciliation.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)
All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.
Song: Your are all we have – SJ 29

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Continue to pray for the youth of the congregation and community during this summer season away from the school routine. Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

Praise God for the courage of the Christians in Sidi, Burkina Faso, who overcame violence and hate with acts of love. Pray for protection for peace-loving people all around the world who are working to build bridges, spread hope, and bring reconciliation.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

In addition, everyone is to bring a picture or some symbol that might symbolize the immigration experience. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

For fearing change
when you call us to new patterns of living,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For failing to see your empowering, transforming vision
for ourselves and for all your creation around us,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)
All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.
Song: Your are all we have – SJ 29

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

Praise God for the courage of the Christians in Sidi, Burkina Faso, who overcame violence and hate with acts of love. Pray for protection for peace-loving people all around the world who are working to build bridges, spread hope, and bring reconciliation.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Monday 18, 6:30 pm - small group committee

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

Wednesday, July 20: All youth will meet at 5 p.m. at the Sullivans to discuss the book, The Distance Between Us. In addition, everyone is to bring a picture or some symbol that might symbolize the immigration experience. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Prayer of Confession: Working in our own Power

Leader: Holy spirit, source of our life,
hear your children's confession
and grant us mercy.
For fearing change
when you call us to new patterns of living,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For failing to see your empowering, transforming vision
for ourselves and for all your creation around us,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)
All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.
Song: Your are all we have – SJ 29

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

Praise God for the courage of the Christians in Sidi, Burkina Faso, who overcame violence and hate with acts of love. Pray for protection for peace-loving people all around the world who are working to build bridges, spread hope, and bring reconciliation.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

Praise God for the courage of the Christians in Sidi, Burkina Faso, who overcame violence and hate with acts of love. Pray for protection for peace-loving people all around the world who are working to build bridges, spread hope, and bring reconciliation.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

In addition, everyone is to bring a picture or some symbol that might symbolize the immigration experience. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Prayer of Confession: Working in our own Power

Leader: Holy spirit, source of our life,
hear your children's confession
and grant us mercy.
For fearing change
when you call us to new patterns of living,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For failing to see your empowering, transforming vision
for ourselves and for all your creation around us,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)
All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.
Song: Your are all we have – SJ 29

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

Praise God for the courage of the Christians in Sidi, Burkina Faso, who overcame violence and hate with acts of love. Pray for protection for peace-loving people all around the world who are working to build bridges, spread hope, and bring reconciliation.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then

Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,

and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Prayer of Confession: Working in our own Power

Leader: Holy spirit, source of our life,
hear your children's confession
and grant us mercy.
For fearing change
when you call us to new patterns of living,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For failing to see your empowering, transforming vision
for ourselves and for all your creation around us,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)
All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Continue to pray for the youth of the congregation and community during this summer season away from the school routine. Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Tuesday, July 19, PET mtg, 1:00 pm

In addition, everyone is to bring a picture or some symbol that might symbolize the immigration experience. We look forward to seeing everyone there!

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Prayer of Confession: Working in our own Power

Leader: Holy spirit, source of our life,
hear your children's confession
and grant us mercy.
For fearing change
when you call us to new patterns of living,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For failing to see your empowering, transforming vision
for ourselves and for all your creation around us,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)
All: We confess that our source of energy, identity, and unity is Jesus Christ,
Leader: not our loyalty to sports teams,
not our wealth or education,
not our family ties.
All: Christ is our source of energy, identity, and unity.

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY

Many of Jesus' parables were told in response to a critique or question from his critics. Such is the case with the two parables in Luke 15: 1-10. Have you ever been "lost" and then found your way? What was your response when you lost something precious and then found it? Jesus invited his critics to recognize and participate in the divine celebration on occasions of repentance.

Assurance

Leader: Know this: Christ loves you and wants to empower you.
Christ applauds you like a mother
applauding her toddler's first steps,
and will lovingly embrace you when you stumble.
Walk confidently then
through the doors Christ opens for you today.
Christ is constantly cheering you on. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving: Gifts without numbers

We praise you because you are God
and because your gifts to us are without number.
We praise you for breath of life,
for the beauty of the world,
and for all that sustains us with bodily strength.
We praise you for the valuable heritage
that comes to us across many generations of ancestors.
We praise you for work to do
and for energy to work.
O God, may we never forget to praise you
for your greatness and your goodness. Amen.

Prayer of Confession: Working in our own Power

Leader: Holy spirit, source of our life,
hear your children's confession
and grant us mercy.
For fearing change
when you call us to new patterns of living,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For failing to see your empowering, transforming vision
for ourselves and for all your creation around us,
People: Forgive us.
Leader: For working out of our own power,
for dividing rather than uniting
as we pursue our own agenda rather than yours,
People: Forgive us. (silence)

Call to Worship

Come together in the presence of the eternal God.

The moment is now.

The place is here.

In this holy place, may eternity and time overlap.

May this be a sacred place where we know the Lord is our God.

(moment of silence)

Sovereign God, you call each of us by name.

Give us eyes to see your world around us.

Teach us to hear the voices of your people.

Empower us to cry out for your holy justice.

Strengthen us to love with your unending love.

May we know what we see, rather than see what we know.

May we honor and glorify you,

and proclaim to future generations what you have done for us.

May God's deliverance be proclaimed to a people yet unborn.

Amen.

Prayers

Give thanks for the hard work and cooperative spirit of the youth and adults as many were involved in the yard sale! Pray for safety, good interactions with friends and family, and that they would be open to the guidance of God's spirit.

Pray for Erik and Dianna Thone as they travel to and from Idaho and seek to work through the process of having Dianna's daughter join their household. Pray also for Erik that he might experience healing and relief from pain in his shoulder.

Give thanks for Ted's ministry with Reel Recovery, and pray for the men who are living with cancer whose lives are touched by those retreats.

TODAY

Continuing with parables in Matthew's gospel, this week we are presented with a parable involving laborers in a vineyard, and a landowner. The action of the landowner may leave us at least a little puzzled. Jesus invites us to receive God's generosity, and to be generous ourselves.

NEXT SUNDAY
