Call to Worship

Leader: Come, all who are weary
And carrying heavy burdens,
And Christ will give rest.

People: Those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength,
they shall mount up with wings like eagles.

Leader: The Lord is always before us.
Because God is at our right hand,
we shall not be moved.

People: God shows us the path of life.
In God's presence there is fullness of joy;
In God's right hand are pleasures forevermore.

*All: Therefore our hearts are glad,
our souls rejoice;
our bodies rest secure.*

Prayers

Remember Jo James in prayer as she seeks healing of her broken leg. May God grant her endurance and patience during rehab treatment.

OUR COVENANT

In covenanting together, we affirm that Jesus Christ is Lord. We gratefully acknowledge him as our Lord and accept his teaching as the way to live. We recognize the importance of:

- Regular Bible study, worship with others, and prayer as a vital part of our Christian life.
- Taking each other seriously, contributing our gifts and caring for one another in love to strengthen the Christian body.
- Living and sharing the Good News as Christ has taught us and as the Holy Spirit enables.

TODAY

The practice of Sabbath rest, or ‘sacred pauses’. Serves to reorient our lives toward Jesus so that our hearts and minds can be in tune with God. God blessed rest – ow amazing is that?! What kinds of Sabbath practices (small or large-scale) do you use to refocus and refresh yourself, your family, or our community?

NEXT SUNDAY

We welcome Jonathan Brenneman who will help us understand another important wall that has separated people and countries, the Israel/Palestine wall. We will begin on Saturday Nov. 12 at 5:30 pm with a Palestinian meal. Following the meal, Jonathan will present a short review of the complex issues facing Israel/Palestine and how Christian Peacemaker Teams are involved in peace-building efforts. On Sunday morning Jonathan will be giving the meditation during worship and during Sunday School hour he will be meeting with youth and adults about concrete ways we can deal with conflict non-violently.

Sabbatical Blessing (congregation reads bold print)

Leaders: Spirit of God, descend upon our hearts

C: Renew Rebecca for her ministry among us through this time set aside for reflection, renewal, study and prayer

Leaders: Renew her for the stimulation sought by a respite from daily tasks and routines of the last 4 years of ministry at PMF

C: We pray as well for Worship Committee, Doris, Darren, Deb, Louise and Phil as they tend to their heightened roles for these 3 months; bless them with wisdom and discernment

Rebecca: I pray also for you my congregation; that the space created by Sabbatical will allow for deep and rich growth in the Spirit

Darren: I invite everyone who is led to come up and gather around us, laying hands upon our heads and shoulders as a blessing for this Sabbatical time. I will lead with a short prayer and warmly invite anyone led to offer their prayers. I will close.

Darren: Rebecca, we present you with this simple iron cross, symbolizing the powers of shaping God alone can work upon us. Only heat from the forge fire made it possible for the ordinary stick of steel to bend and form into the cross you see now. May you remember throughout your Sabbatical the shaping God has in store for you if you are willing to set yourself into God's holy firepot.

C: Rebecca, we send you now on this Sabbatical journey confident that God will bless your every step, refresh your spirit, renew your mind, strengthen your body, and return you to us empowered for our continued task of ministry here in Paoli, as well as throughout the world
