December 10, 2017

We welcome all persons to worship, study and fellowship with us as we continually seek to be faithful disciples of Jesus.

Call to Worship/Prayer

(Congregation says the bold print after each stanza)

Into our troubles and weaknesses,

Into the barren places of our souls, come Jesus.

Come down, come in, come among us and make us whole.

Into the refugee and those torn by war,

Into those who live in conflict, come Jesus.

Into the homeless and unemployed,

Into those who feel abandoned, come Jesus.

Into the sick and the suffering.

Into those with cancer or depression, come Jesus.

Into those who are oppressed or abused,

Into those who hold power over others, come Jesus.

Into the lives of our loved ones,

Into those from whom we are estranged, come Jesus.

Into our joys and celebrations,

Into our work and our resting, come Jesus.

O Christ, we long for your presence for only You can make us whole.

Hasten that day when your Kingdom will come in all its glory; when suffering and pain, sickness, oppression and death will be overcome forever.

Hasten the day when we will be resurrected as a great multicultural family, and live in harmony, joy and love together with you.

Let it be whole, Amen.

- Regular Bible study, worship with others, and prayer as a vital part of our Christian life.
- Taking each other seriously, contributing our gifts and caring for one another in love to strengthen the Christian body.
- Living and sharing the Good News as Christ has taught us and as the Holy Spirit enables.

TODAY

When the prophet Isaiah, and young Mary, reflect on how God is acting and will act in the world, they envision a radical realignment of the social order. How is the Holly Spirit realigning things today? Will we join Mary in proclaiming and wishing for this wholeness?

Mentor and Mentee lunch and cookie decorating following church.

NEXT SUNDAY

The response of Mary (Luke 1:38) to God's invitation can serve as inspiration for our own willingness to say "yes" to God. What do you think prepared Mary to answer in such a way? Read and reflect on Luke 1:26-38 in preparation.
