Prayers

This past week Wade Giles was admitted to Bloomington Hospital with fluid accumulating in his lungs and difficulty breathing. He was able to return home on Tuesday. Continue to keep Wade and his family in your daily prayers as he deals with severe significant medical problems.

Our current college students, Lydia Kinloch, Livi Sullivan and Dietrich Sears, are nearing the end of their first semester of college life. As a congregation we offer them financial support of $250.00 per semester as a way of showing our on-going support. Continue to hold them in your thoughts and prayers as they finish their first semester.

On the bulletin board is a letter from Hannah Thill who is currently doing voluntary service in Alamosa, Colorado. Continue to keep Hannah in your prayers as she discusses significant conservation and watershed issues with children. You can check out pictures on the Alamosa Mennonite Voluntary Service facebook page along with other information about her work.
